City Authorities
Dallas, Texas

Dear Sirs:

"Life" magazine in an article about the death of Lee Oswald stated that flowers were sent to the funeral by some one named Virginia Leach.

My name happens to be Virginia Leach and I did not send the flowers.

Could you possibly send me enough information about the sender of the flowers to show that it was not I? I would be most appreciative.

Sincerely,

Virginia B. Leach

Dear Mrs. Leach:

The funeral services for Lee Oswald were conducted in Fort Worth, Texas, with only members of the family and Secret Service agents present.

I know nothing more about this man's funeral.

Very truly yours,

Tuesday

Dear Sir,

I have read extracts from the Book "Who Killed Kennedy" and I am delighted with same. I have had 25 years experience of public work. "Retired" and I am sorry to say I indict you all public in the brutal murder of a good good man, the late Mr Kennedy.

I have studied every aspect of the Case, and I can only come to one conclusion that - you are uncivilized people in Dallas. You think the world will forget that awful planned murder. No you stand in the eyes of all the civilized people of the West as a horrible example of public as they should be. May God forgive you. I am as stated a retired British Public Officer. We have good law, and order. But I regret to say your law is one of Hatred, and the law of the gun. It is ~~clear~~ clearly shown where you were that day - that the crowd stood still - you were the outside that murder plot building

2 as a police officer with experience I have no hesitation in saying that that good man was the victim of a deep deep vicious plot. I saw in a previous report of yours that the case was closed. That awful "Ppt" Oswald - no more killed him "than I did" He was a Concave man that is why you held him out like a Rabbit to be shot. - & now we see that ~~that~~ Tibbit was also an accomplice

The years will go by, but it is to the everlasting disgrace & disgust to us all here that men like you should call yourselves law officers I am sorry for you, if you are a family man - all the Leontfelt Garrison you have caused the decent people's w/fe would by your wicked action

The trial of Ruby was only a Farce, but it did not convince a people who are civilized. I will conclude by saying that I am convinced that you all may have some regrets now when you see what the world ~~to~~ thought of that good man. M. A. Wado Cart kind as we either he knew of the plot too. I can safely say that - the name of Dallas is rotten in the ears of all good decent people the world over. No matter what Cretch or politics we belong to. Retired Police Officer & proud of our Law. Fred

Dear Sir:

This is another fan letter; I'm sure you receive many similar in content. It is just a shame that a country such as ours, which has been fought for so gallantly over the last few centuries, should be so full of corruption. That the police force of one of its largest cities should be suspect in having something to do with the death of a president. More than suspect; it's an unproven fact. Unproven but not unprovable. Believe me, there are decent people in this country who will not rest until the truth about Kennedy's death is known. You can have them killed and cover up the deaths but others will carry on. It's too bad the President himself isn't above suspicion so that he could step in and insure an honest investigation. Someone's money is paying off your bullies. You have not been caught but the people are not unaware of your deeds.

Dallas Chief Tells Inquiry Of Security

Dallas police chief Jess E. Curry testified in minute detail yesterday about his force's role in security around the fatal visit of President John F. Kennedy to Dallas last November.

Curry at noon had been testifying nearly 3 hours before the presidential fact finding commission probing the assassination of Mr. Kennedy.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.), a Commission member, said Curry was being questioned about "the whole aspect of the affair, including arrangements on security for the visit."

Other Dallas officers were heard later.

Sweden Bars Chocolate Sale

Reuters

MOELNDAL, Sweden, April 22 — Swedish health authorities today sealed off a factory warehouse containing three tons of chocolate because the company did not have permission to use laxatives as an ingredient.

About 55 pounds of chocolate have been confiscated from the open market, officials said here tonight.

The factory owner explained he had permission to produce both chocolate and laxatives from the Board of Health, and thought this covered laxative-chocolate which, he said, he had manufactured since 1958.
